

PURPOSE OF USE OF CLIENT'S PERSONAL INFORMATION

SBI BITS Co., Ltd.

Client's personal information may be used by the Company to the extent that it is necessary to achieve the business objectives of the Company concerning the following business operations. Pursuant to the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Financial Instruments Business, etc., information on a person's race, faith, family origin, original registered domicile, healthcare, criminal record or any other specified non-disclosure information, will not be used other than for purpose of ensuring proper business operations.

1. Scope of Business

- To design, develop, operate, sell, maintain, inspect and lease information communication devices and computer software
- To obtain, transfer, lease and manage the intellectual property rights with respect to the abovementioned
- To advice on the selection of service providers and manage the service providers
- To conduct business in relation to the lease and sublease of real estate property
- To provide information, data entry, training and consulting services relating to all of the abovementioned
- To conduct all businesses that are related or incidental to all of the abovementioned
- To conduct all other businesses

2. Purpose of Use

- For the execution and the provision of information of the businesses set forth in the Company Articles of Incorporation
- For dealing with investigations and report requests by agencies as required by relevant laws and regulations
- For purposes of soliciting, selling and presenting information of products and services of the Company, its affiliated companies or partner companies
- For verifying the client's identity or that of the client's representative
- For carrying out all matters related to relevant transactions with the client
- For the research and development of products or services through market research, data analysis and conducting survey
- For the proper management of personal information obtained from other business operators whereby the Company has been commissioned to do so
- For the exercise of or fulfillment of the Company's legal or contractual rights or obligations
- For the purpose of smoothly and appropriately proceeding with the relevant transaction with the client
- Irrespective of the abovementioned purposes, My Number will only be used by an affiliated company for the opening of account for financial instruments trading and compilation of the relevant documentation required by law.